

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.

ge opened on Tuesday after the brief E
s. and with the fourth and last term o

Brainerd Kellogg has begun a series of lectures upon the philosophy and history of language, following the lines laid down by Professor Whistler.

stitutional law as supplementary to his municipal law, and President David H. Coe will shortly give a course in international law.

juniors on Friday evening held their class at the Arena, in New-York, with a full membership present. Delegates from these other classes responded to toasts, as did representatives of each of the college courses. Moore represented the freshman class, Mooremore and Pray the senior. Of the ninety Bristol was chosen from the electricals, and from the engineers, Doerflinger from the mechanicals and Kimball from the arts. Treasurer Henry E. Northrup, of the department, lectured in his course as usual this evening at the Brooklyn Institute, treating of Engineering in the same auspices, on April 24, he will lecture on foreign lands seen from a wheel.

[illegible]

ican Chemical Society, at which he presented a new generator of gas of his own design at the same dinner. W. O. Doeringer, '36, read a paper, which considered the manufacture of a new type of compound. He was accompanied by his wife and the Brooklyn Institute upon arrival at the Public Library Association conference. The possibility of securing for Brooklyn a larger university, graduate students in electricity have been in the large lecture hall formerly occupied by Professor Rodney Kimball, where hereafter the study of dynamos and transformers will be conducted. The research papers of these men have been submitted for faculty consideration at the Board of Trustees meeting at the Phi Kappa Chapter in Cleveland on Thursday, where he attended the home college in an able address.

BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL.
A regular meeting of the Boys' High School Society was held last Thursday afternoon in the lecture-room. After the reading of the minutes an open discussion was held to determine the best way to represent High School in the contest with Poly. The subject was the same as the interschool play one—"Resolved, That the Boys' High School be Beneficial to New-York State." Many speakers in favor of the negative side. Messrs. Dresser, Metcalfe, Quinn, Tomlin, Stein, and Houghton, were in favor of the affirmative. All the members of the Executive Committee—Professors Park, and Marsh, and Redfield, '97, and West were present. These five will accept the subject Poly debate on the merits of the speech. In this open debate. The society has the respect one of the judges in the interschool play. Messrs. Burke and Marsh, of the High School and Messrs. Gaters, and Culver, of the education. Mr. Swanstrom received the Messrs. Palmer and Culyer being accorded respectively. The open debate was continued Friday afternoon, as all the members of the club did not get a chance to speak on Thursday. The Henry Clay Debating Society disbanded Friday afternoon, in order that its members might attend the lectures of the High School.

practice of the baseball team was greatly hampered by the bad weather of last season, which prevented the completion of the complete schedule for the coming season. The following is the schedule for the season: April 13, vs. St. Francis College; April 15, vs. St. Francis College; April 26, vs. Lakewood; April 29, vs. Latin School; May 2, vs. St. Francis College.

ute; May 6, vs. St. Paul; May 8, vs. S Academy; May 9, vs. Hamilton At
May 13, vs. Polytechnic Institute; May 1
Institute; May 20, vs. Adelphi Academy;
Ithaca High School; May 27, vs. Pa
Academy; May 30, vs. Kings County A June 6, vs. Queens Athletic Association; Aetna Athletic Club. Most of the g place on the newly obtained ground
corner of Kingston and Dean sts.
Following men are entered in the joint,
11th Regiment Athletic Association and Ridge Athletic Association: Swords, 220
Goetting, 75-yard dash; Teybrica, ju dash, and Weir, one-mile run. On Sa

13. Goetting will run in the five-mile country handicap run of the New-York Club.

April issue of "The High School Record" will be out on Wednesday.

Thursday evening a concert was given by the piano clubs, assisted by William H. B. entertainer. The affair took place at the England Congregational Church.

His address at the alumni dinner, President announced that the Alumni Association had to the school two bass-reliefs. Dr. M. H. has fixed Friday, April 24, as the date

[illegible]

97. has obtained first prize in "The Brod Eagle" prize poem competition. Frederickington, '96, won second prize. The poemers in the presentation of a silver service to Brooklyn, will be read on the occasion. Smith and Dr. George P. Mains spoke. Scarborough announced the speakers, choosing semi-annuals from about eighty writers. They are Carruthers, '96; Graham, '97; Redfield, '97; Jacobs, '96; Waterhammond, '96, and Carriek, '96. Of these Carruthers, Graham and Harding have summer semi-annual declamations. The dating rhetorical has not as yet been de-

The affair this year is expected to be even more successful than the previous ones.

—

PRATT INSTITUTE.

The institute was closed Good Friday, Saturday and Easter Monday, giving a little rest to the students. In place of the usual vacation between the Christmas and spring terms.

Friday was one of the red-letter days of the year. On it Joseph Jefferson gave a talk to the students on "Dramatic Art."

Thursday evening Jerome Walker, M. A., of the University of Chicago, gave a very helpful and interesting lecture on "The History of the English Language."

Hygienic of Dress. . . .
Friday evening a dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the work at the Astor. The entertainment was followed by a dance in the hall.
Saturday the physical culture classes began. These students, under the direction of . . . have been doing thorough work during . . . and will be able to show a wonderful display of their training in the year.
THEY WILL CONTINUE WORKING.
He said that Asa W. Tenney has sworn that neither slumber nor sleep until Brooklyn or New York is one city. Whether the learned physician or the consolidation scheme will be the cause of this terrific struggle does not matter in his mind. Mr. Tenney is a sturdy Scotchman, whose constitution has withstood the rigors and cares of many busy years. But he is inclined to question his ability to do so, in which it is alleged he has just made a slip. His solitary consolidation newspaper keeps its reporters busy since Mayor Woodcock's bid seeking words of encouragement to the consolidation readers. It was in the presence of this newspaper's representatives that he took his alleged vow, and, although he took a such a solemn oath, the newspaper is a rabid Democrat, the lawyer seemed satisfied that his confidence was well-placed. The Democrat reporter as to the momentous incident.
Stewart L. Woodford is said to have made himself of this promise in the presence of the press. He said he would devote whatever years I have to bring a